Share and Care

Class 11 along with their teachers embarked on a social service venture by distributing lunch food packets to the needy as part of Gurupurnima Celebrations.

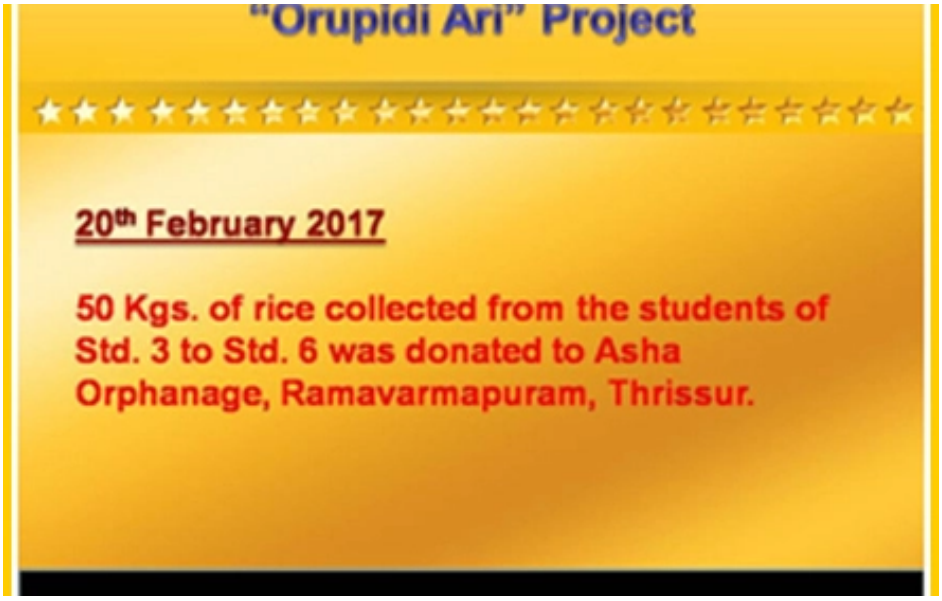

The zest and zeal of students to "Share" and "Care" for the people who battle for survival is incredible. By being generous in the service of the community, the students decipher the meaning of life. The children wholeheartedly foray into the world of communal service and to salvage this spirit, our school has initiated myriad programmes to strengthen this "bond".

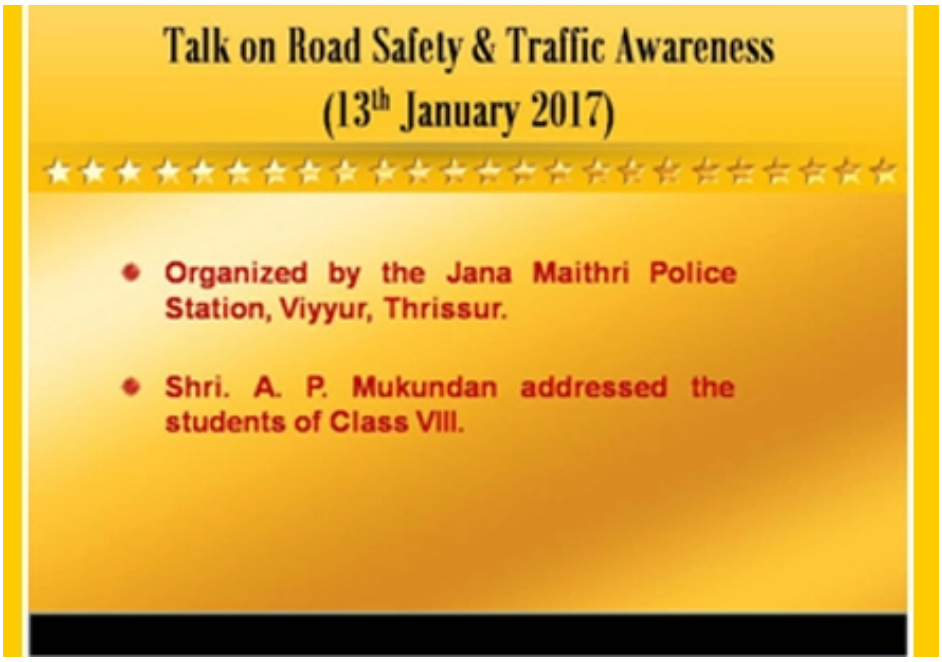

Reach Swasraya Visit

Students of Class 9 celebrated Christmas in a different way. They visited the differently abled children at Reach Swasraya and entertained them. Each child carried a gift for one of the inmates of the organization.

Oru Pidi Ari
